High intensity, maximum enjoyment, maximum return art workshops

Art tutoring and practical workshops for Year 10, 11 and 12 School Students

Gabrielle Jones is a Sydney based professional artist who exhibits in leading commercial galleries in three states and has an upcoming solo show at Goulburn Regional Gallery. She has taught drawing and painting (to beginners and advanced students) as well as Art History in private visual arts colleges around Sydney and will be conducting a Master Class at Goulburn Regional Gallery. Gabrielle has qualifications in Education (Sydney University) and Fine Arts (National Art School, with Distinction). She was recently awarded an artist's residency in Almeria, Spain.

Gabrielle's strength is her exceptional "eye" and broad training as well as having extensive studio experience, allowing her to quickly identify problem areas in student work and provide alternative, creative and relevant suggestions for resolving visual arts projects to the highest possible standard. A talented communicator, Gabrielle's warm personality ensures her classes are enjoyable as well as challenging and informative.

Classes for Years 10, 11 and 12 are individually tailored, with students in any one class occupied in a variety of tasks according to their project requirements and skill levels. Sessions could include creative exercises to get the ideas flowing, as well as painting techniques, composition, colour and or tonal theory and practice, or methods of abstraction, depending on the needs and interests of the students and teachers.

Workshops (at your school)

For 5-10 students per class for a two-and-a-half hour morning or afternoon session (eg 9:30am-12 noon or 12:45-3:15pm – hours are flexible to suit school timetables) are available for $50 per student.

A full day session would cost $95 per student.

Tutoring

Afternoon or evening tutoring at your school is also available for $60 per hour per student (minimum 3 students) or one-on-one tutoring for $80 per hour, minimum 3 hours.

Bookings are also available during School Holidays, subject to availability.
